

Nicholas Dowding KC Called 1979 Silk 1997

Practice Summary

Nicholas Dowding QC specialises in all aspects of property law, with particular reference to commercial property disputes. In recent years, he has appeared in the Supreme Court in two leading cases concerning implied terms in break clauses and residential service charges, and in the Court of Appeal and the High Court in cases concerning (among other things) leasehold enfranchisement, forfeiture, unreasonable withholding of consent, terminal dilapidations, business tenancies and rights of way. He is frequently instructed in large rent review matters and dilapidations claims, in both of which he has particular expertise, and he is often appointed as an arbitrator or legal assessor.
